

VELLUTIER

JEWELLERS OF FRAGRANCE

This slogan appeared in our heads intuitively, because we approach the production of our candles with the same accuracy like jewellers who polish the most beautiful diamonds.

Just like they carefully choose the best stones to polish, just we also select with great accuracy the best quality raw materials to be able to offer you a top shelf product.

The testimony of our efforts is elaborately refined, subtle fragrances hidden in unusually velvety wax.

From the deep need to find the highest quality, sealed with years of searching, candles were born whose finish,
appearance and the content meet our expectations.

Vellutier® are candles in which global design and elegance meet in one place.
Our passion for above-average solutions has always pushed us to search for real gems, jewels in the surrounding reality. Inspired by the perfection of nature, innovation of technical thought and the charismatic nature of unusual places and stories, we have created exclusive and unique candles which,
present change in the surrounding space.

Achieving heights at every stage of production was possible thanks to the cooperation of brilliant artists and specialists in the field of glass design, woodworking and honoured masters of world perfumery.

Real jewels - Vellutier® candles have been hidden in the highest quality, special recipe velvety wax and packed in a unique glass dedicated to our brand.

Its sophisticated shape, with its characteristic two-angled cut, forms a perfect figure with a precisely matched lid made of real wood.

A heraldic logo engraved in the wooden lid emphasizes the uniqueness of the noble material, revealing its unique structure.

Vellutier® candles have a special cotton wick which is made with addition of Egyptian cotton. To make it we use the highest quality cotton which allows the candle to burn with a nice, clean flame.

Vellutier® fragrances are carefully selected elegant compositions that take us to distant places by telling, through the unique notes sunk in them, exciting stories from the most beautiful corners of the world.

Thanks to an elegant yet simple form
and extremely precise finish, Vellutier® candles are a great decoration of any interior, and the unique fragrances of our candles, created in the best perfume houses in Europe, reach the most sophisticated tastes.

The unique recipe of our wax was created in Great Britain and is the result of our many years of research in this field.

The wax in Vellutier® candles has beautiful, velvety structure, hence derives the name of the brand Vellutier® - from Italian velluto which means velvet.

We are proud of our wax, that's why we do not cover it in lacquered containers, our glass has a unique shape and extremely clean structure that underlines its "luxuriousness".

Our wax blend is based on rapeseed wax from regional European crops. It allows us to get the effect of a creamy candle that looks beautiful, smells natural and burns very well.

Elegant, wooden and very boutique boxes conceal a real jewel: original recipe velvet wax melt wrapped in a stylish tissue, created from carefully selected, top-quality, safe ingredients.

Created especially for us, complex fragrances of our wax melts are the work of honoured masters of world perfumery. Thanks to their unique notes they take us to distant places, telling exciting stories from the most beautiful corners of the world.

Because of its exquisite form our wax melt wooden boxes are an ideal gift for anyone who appreciates exceptional quality.

Elegant and tasteful, Vellutier® matches suit perfectly to all our products.
